

THE DEEP END Lyrics and music © Jack Williams

I've got a rainbow tied around my finger
To remind me to get out of the rain.
I've got a wishbone from a rich man's table.
Maybe I'll get lucky, but some turkey's day is done.

I see old catfish swimmin' in the river.
He can show me the way back to the farm.
I got a rabbit's foot hangin' swingin' from the mirror.
As luck would have it some rabbit lost a pitchin' arm.

CHORUS

I got Jesus Christ in the middle of the night,
And a cardboard box to sleep in.
I got the county police and the golden fleece,
But I sure could use a real friend.
I think I'm goin' off the deep end.

I got a moonbeam spread across my table,
But I can't hold on to things I love the best.
I got a horseshoe nailed above the doorway.
I can't find no peace and my horse can't get no rest.

CHORUS 2

I got Vincent Price in my dreams at night,
And I ain't got a pot to piss in.
I see war and peace on these one-way streets
But I sure could use a real friend,
I think I'm going off the deep end.
