

MAKE ME A BELIEVER     Lyrics and music © Jack Williams

At the dark end of a one-way street
Strange faces of mystery,
A young boy's imagination runs away.
Legends flower, lives are sold,
Lies believed, tales are told,
The curious may never again
See the light of day.

CHORUS

Make me a believer,
Make me a believer,
Make me a believer and I'm yours.
Make me a believer,
Make me a believer,
Make me a believer and I'm yours.

One day you must turn the page,
Light your lamp and come of age,
Look into those alien eyes at last.
When you finally walk that darkened street,
Shadows fall away from your feet,
And all uncertain fearful years
Fade into the past.

CHORUS

Lovers, friends and brothers may
Hold you close then turn away...
How can I take all that love as real?
I'm hiding in my wildest dreams,
Trusting you to rescue me,
And lead me to an ecstasy
That even I can feel.

CHORUS
